of supervised release. (Doc. 49). Four Star's current term of supervised release began on March 7, 2025.

Initial Appearance

Four Star appeared before the Court on May 6, 2025. Four Star was represented by counsel. Four Star stated that he had read the Petition and that he understood the allegations against him. Four Star waived his right to a preliminary hearing. The parties consented to proceed with the revocation hearing before the undersigned.

The Court heard testimony from United States Probation Officer Nicholas Buciuman regarding violations 1, 4, 5 and 6. Following the testimony, the Government moved to dismiss allegations 1 and 4. The Court determined the Government had not met its burden of proof as to allegations 5 and 6. However, the Court determined that Four Star's admitted violations 2, 3, 7, and 8 are serious and warrant revocation of Four Star's supervised release.
